CLUB NEWS

- President Grant:
- On ANZAC day, I had the honour, as representative of the Club, of laying a wreath at the Pascoe Vale RSL memorial service. The service was conducted in the carpark beside the RSL, commencing at 6.00am. To my amazement, there were over 250 people in attendance. The service was followed by breakfast and two-up in the RSL.
- On Tuesday, Pat, Heather and I helped pick and pack an order at RIMERN. The order was for a client who had been waiting for over 3 years to be allocated a home. He is moving to the country, as there is cheaper housing there. He was extremely grateful for the furniture and kitchen goods. Please remember, we have committed to help RIMERN every second Tuesday for three hours, from 10.00am to 1.00pm.
- Lastly, congratulations to Bruce. The hearing tests on Saturday were a huge success, with about 50 children being tested.
